

For Immediate Release

Contact: Rhonda Hoffman
(602) 257-7966
rhoffman@gustlaw.com

Diana L. Kanon Joins Gust Rosenfeld P.L.C.

(Phoenix, AZ) -- Gust Rosenfeld announced that Diana L. Kanon has joined the firm and is focusing her practice on medical malpractice and civil litigation. Most recently, Diana served as Deputy County Attorney for the Gila County Attorney's office in Globe, Arizona where she prosecuted felony criminal matters. Previously, Diana had been an Associate Attorney with a private law firm in Tucson. There she defended civil matters in state and federal court, including professional malpractice, municipal liability, insurance defense, estate litigation, bankruptcy, and employment.

Upon relocating with her husband and children to the Phoenix area, Diana is pleased to join Gust Rosenfeld. "I had done civil work for 16 years in Tucson and knew Gust Rosenfeld's reputation and professionalism," Diana said.

Diana was born in Australia but grew up in Globe where her father was in the mining industry and her mother was a teacher. She is a graduate of the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law cum laude (2002). In law school, she was Articles Editor of the Arizona Law Review, on the Dean's List, and a Richard Grand Legal Writing Competition Finalist. She attended Bryn Mawr College as an undergraduate and received her degree from the University of Arizona (1998).

Committed to her community and her profession, Diana was most recently a member of the Arizona Gang Investigators Association, Arizona Narcotics Officers Association, and Arizona Prosecuting Attorneys' Advisory Council. Past affiliations include the State Bar CLE Committee, Tucson Division (2005-2009); Southern Arizona Chapter of the Arizona Women Lawyers' Association Steering Committee; and top leadership positions for the Pima County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division.

Diana is admitted to the Arizona Bar (2002), the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona (2002), and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit (2007). She has 6 published appellate opinions.

About Gust Rosenfeld P.L.C.

Gust Rosenfeld is a full-service law firm established in 1921 with offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Flagstaff, and Wickenburg. The Firm is known for the quality of its lawyers and legal advice, as well as its creative insights and practical solutions in business, public and civil law. Gust Rosenfeld is experienced in alternative dispute resolution, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, business and corporate law, commercial finance, education law, environmental law, franchises and franchising, health care law, insurance intellectual property, labor and employment, litigation, natural resources, public finance, public law, real estate, taxation, trusts and estates.

###